RAPHAËLLE STOPIN

© Charles Fréger

Raphaëlle Stopin (1978) is a French curator and writer. For the past fifteen years, she has been curator in charge of the photographic section for the Hyères International Festival of Fashion and Photography where she aims to promote emerging photographers and in the frame of which she has exhibited the works of historical figures Appointed Art Director for the Centre photographique in Rouen, Normandy, she builds there an exhibition programme which pays tribute to singular photographic signatures, telling an artistically committed story of our world. Over the past two years, she has held exhibitions by Walker Evans, The Magazine Work (in collaboration with David Company), Stephen Gill, Michael Wolf, Eamonn Doyle or dedicated a group show to portrait and its photographic experiments (The Other Face). In the context of Normandie Impressionniste Festival, she curated a retrospective of William Klein (Saint-Ouen abbey, Rouen) and to the invitation of Rouen fine Arts museum, a show of Alinka Echeverria at the Ceramics Museum, Normandy. Dana Lixenberg and a thematic show on the fantasy of flying will be the the highlights of the 2018 season.

She has previously served as guest curator at The Photographers' Gallery in London, UltraLounge Selfridges, the FNAC Photo Galleries, the Experimental Section of the Photomonth, Krakow, Poland.

LE PRIX HSBC POUR LA PHOTOGRAPHIE

Created in April 1995, the Prix HSBC pour la Photographie, is now in its 23th year of accompanying young photographic creation and undertakes to support even more strongly the work of its award winners. The HSBC Prize supports the two photographers by:

- ▶ Publishing each artist's first monograph
- ▶ Creating and organising the travelling exhibition of their works at cultural venues in France and/or abroad.
- ▶ Production of new works, presented during the last stage.
- ▶ Acquisition by HSBC France of six works by each award winner for its photography collection.
